Dear Praying Friends,

One of our favorite weekly activities here in Paris has become distributing booklets containing the Gospel of John and Romans with our church. Wednesday evenings we stand outside a metro station and distribute to anyone willing to accept. One night, a lady at a nearby café watched us for some time. She then came over and asked us for one. She then returned to her table and began reading for some time. We may never know the impact of this outreach, but we know that the need for outreach in France is great. [More on FlyTogo.org]

To help you better interact with our ministry, we have added a new page to our website where you can learn more about the topics in our prayer letter and view photos. Whenever you see [More on FlyTogo.org], log on to FlyTogo.org to learn more!

Language study continues to progress. Though we encounter many difficult days, we are thankful for our patient instructors. Thankfully, not all days are as trying. One day each week we have a Biblical French class intended to help us learn concepts and vocabulary pertaining to the Bible and ministry. Recently, we have been learning to pray in French. We are thankful that God knows our hearts when we pray, because the words in our head do not always match the words coming out of our mouth!

During a recent break from class, Mattie and I were able to visit the historic D-Day beaches in Normandy. We were overwhelmed with gratitude for those who served from the United States, Canada, and other allied countries during the Second World War. The climax of the trip was our visit to the American Military Cemetery in Normandy where around 10,000 men and women are buried. The white marble crosses arranged neatly in rows remind us of the great price for freedom that was paid there. This Thanksgiving and Christmas season, we are also reminded of the eternal freedom we have through the death and resurrection of Christ. We have much to be thankful for. [More on FlyTogo.org]

We wish each of you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Thank you for your faithful prayers and support of our ministry.

By His Grace,

Jeremy & Mattie Benbrooks
